

Workday Employee Privacy Statement

This privacy statement sets out how we collect, use, disclose and protect your personal information received via the Workday application ("Workday System"). "We" or "us" are together the New Zealand Institute for Public Health and Forensic Science Limited ("PHF Science") in respect of PHF Science employees ("PHF Science employees"), and the New Zealand Institute for Earth Science Limited ("Earth Sciences NZ") in respect of employees of the GNS Science business unit of Earth Sciences NZ ("Earth Sciences NZ employees"). It also covers the information that Earth Sciences NZ employees can see about PHF Science employees and vice versa, and what Workday Limited as PHF Science's and Earth Sciences NZ's agent, collects and uses to enable the provision of the Workday System to PHF Science, Earth Sciences NZ and each of their employees. Finally, this statement sets out how you can access and correct any of your personal information held on the Workday System.

Personal information

The term 'personal information' covers any information about an identifiable individual. Personal information includes data such as your name, unique identifier, location, phone number, email address, and may include the content of any interactions you have with the Workday System.

What personal information do we collect?

The Workday System has been pre-populated with your name, email address, start date, job position, employee ID, salary, ethnicity, birth date, visa information (if applicable), banking details, your manager's name, home and work address, home and work telephone numbers, cost centre, work status (i.e. part-time/full-time etc), compensation and related payroll information, and performance ratings and course completion records from prior years. We also collect the following types of information relating to you via the Workday System (some of which will constitute personal information):

- Driver's licence (optional to provide)
- Passport (optional to provide)
- Emergency contact details, including legal name and relationship to you.

Information that Workday Limited collects

Workday Limited collects the above information when you populate it on the Workday System or in some cases when you visit or interact with the Workday System. Workday Limited only uses your personal information in accordance with Earth Science NZ's and PHF Science's instructions – which are to manage the Workday System and provide technical, security, configuration and trouble-shooting services.

Workday Limited does not interact with the detail of the personal information stored on the Workday System.

How do we collect your personal information?

We collect some or all the above information:

- at the time you joined PHF Science or Earth Sciences NZ as an employee
- when you access and use the Workday System.

How does Workday Limited collect my information?

Workday Limited collects some of your personal information from PHF Science and Earth Sciences NZ which is pre-populated on the Workday System, and when you use and access the Workday System.

Workday Limited also utilises cookies to deliver its service to PHF Science and Earth Sciences NZ – these are for session management, security management and routing information. These cookies expire at the end of each session.

How do we use your personal information?

We collect your personal information to enable:

- you to log into the Workday System
- you to utilise the functionality of the Workday System, including completing your leave and time recording
- us to pay you
- us to understand and manage our workforce
- us to manage our jobs, compensation and organisation structure
- us to complete reporting and analytics
- us to meet reporting obligations.

How does Workday Limited use my information?

Workday Limited uses personal information only in accordance with PHF Science's and Earth Sciences NZ's instructions to provide the Workday System, which may include technical, security, configuration and trouble-shooting requirements.

How do we share your personal information?

- please refer to information shared between Earth Sciences NZ and PHF Science in the following section
- where we are required by law to do so.

If I am an PHF Science employee, what personal information can Earth Sciences NZ and Earth Sciences NZ employees see on the Workday System relating to me (and vice versa if I am a Earth Sciences NZ employee, what personal information can PHF Science and PHF Science employees see on the Workday System relating to me)?

The Workday System is a 'shared tenancy' which means that both Earth Sciences NZ and PHF Science are using the same instance of the system. While several elements of the system are separated between the two entities, the following personal information is shared which means that if you are an PHF Science employee you will be able to see the following information about Earth Sciences NZ employees (and vice versa):

- Name, position title, organisation department, employment type, work location, work address, work email address, work phone number and manager name, upcoming absences (marked as generic 'leave'), management chain, organisation data such as cost centre, pay group, any data regarding mentorships (names of mentors and mentees, their position and work address, and skills a mentor is able to mentor in).

Visibility of work and home contact information can be restricted by you as a user. All home contact information should be set to 'Private' to protect your privacy. Work contact information should be set to 'Public'.

The System Administrator roles within the Workday System are shared between PHF Science and Earth Sciences NZ to carry out system administration duties which relate to configuration of the system, audit and reporting or managing business processes. These individuals have all been required to sign non-disclosure agreements and are only permitted to use personal information disclosed to them for the purposes of operating the Workday System.

Finally, to operate the Workday System, there are some security roles within PHF Science and Earth Sciences NZ that require access to the logs behind the system. This means your personal information may be viewable by people holding these roles. These individuals have all been required to sign non-disclosure agreements and are only permitted to use personal information disclosed to them for the purposes of operating the Workday System.

How does Workday Limited share my information?

Workday Limited shares personal information with its subprocessors to provide the Workday services. Such subprocessors are required to abide by terms no less protective than Workday Limited is required to abide by.

How do we store your personal information?

Your personal information is stored on the Workday System. Workday Limited has implemented robust technical and organisational measures designed to protect your personal information against accidental or unlawful destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorised disclosure, or access.

How can you access and/or correct your personal information?

You have the right to access and correct your personal information at any time. You can logon to the Workday System and make changes in your account. You can also change the user preferences associated with your account. If you are unable to access or correct your personal information yourself, please send an email to ESRHumanResources@phfscience.nz for PHF Science employees and careers@gns.cri.nz for Earth Sciences NZ employees.

How long do we keep your personal information?

We only keep your personal information for as long as we require it. Sometimes this requirement will be mandated by law.

How long does Workday Limited keep my personal information for?

For the lesser of the time that PHF Science or Earth Sciences NZ requires it or the duration of the Workday agreement in place with Earth Sciences NZ and PHF Science.

How can you make a privacy related complaint?

If you would like to make a privacy complaint relating to the Workday System, for PHF Science employees please contact the People and Culture Team in the first instance (ESRHumanResources@phfscience.nz) or contact PHF Science's Privacy Officer directly. For Earth Sciences NZ employees please contact careers@gns.cri.nz.

Changes to this privacy statement

We may update this privacy statement from time to time. Any such changes will be posted here. This privacy statement was last updated on 1 July 2025. We recommend that you check back frequently to see any updates or changes.
